

Science Sunday Topic, 'Life'

"Life" will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text from Luke reads: "Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him."

A Bible story from Mark reports that a ruler of the synagogue came to Jesus saying: "My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed: and she shall live. . . . And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. . . . And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, . . . Damsel, I say unto thee, arise. And straightway the damsel arose, and walked."

"Called to the bed of death, what material remedy has man when all such remedies have failed?" writes Mary Baker Eddy in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures."

IN 1950 -- WHAT SHALL BE OUR AIM, SECURITY?

BY REV. W. A. PENNER, PASTOR
CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE

This is the time of year when we are naturally looking into the future. The New Year has just dawned upon us, and we are feverishly promoting every endeavor that will add to our material gains, and insure temporal security. Plans have been made or are in the making. Our objectives have been pretty well defined, and we are deeply engrossed in visions of an accumulation which, we hope, the New Year will bring.

But, is this the great objective in life? Will the accumulating of temporal things, and the pursuit of financial security, alone, satisfy the human heart? Jesus says, in the Gospel of Luke, Chapter 12, verse 15, "For a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth." There is no thought, on the part of the Master, to condemn such objectives. To provide for one's own, and to be diligent in business, is commended by the Scriptures. The danger lies in what he said just previous to the above quotation, "Beware of Covetousness."

Jesus now tells us a very interesting story in the following verses of the same quotation. The story is that of a certain farmer, who became very wealthy. He had made a successful investment in some good land, and the coming harvest was greater than he had anticipated. In fact, so much so, that it created a terrific disposal problem. There was only one solution; to put in his own words, "This will I do: I will pull down my barns and build greater, and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods."

Then, according to the story, swelling with a sense of satisfaction over the success of his own shrewdness, he thinks of his soul. But his thoughts were like many of today. Not in terms of the spiritual, but only in terms of the material. "I will say to my soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years, take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry." This is what he thought to be the purpose and goal of life. He failed to recognize the One who controls the destinies, and who holds the destinies of our lives in His hands. The God who prospered him, and endowed him with the capacity to achieve, he had completely ignored. The future now suddenly becomes the present, and his is face to face with the stark reality that God now demands an accounting. In Jesus' own words, "But God said unto him, thou fool, thy soul shall be required of thee."

Here is a man who had made a success, from a worldly view point, of preparing for the future. But in God's sight, he was a fool. To disregard God in our plans for security, is to bring upon ourselves the same condemnation.

Jesus concludes this story by offering a sane and sensible solution to this whole matter of security. In the 31st verse he says, "But rather seek ye the Kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you." To really have security is to renounce sin, accept Jesus Christ as the Saviour from sin; shift the emphasis of our lives from "self" to God, and trust Him. We will be amazed at the sense of security within our own consciousness, and with it will come a deep conviction that this is the true end, and purpose of life.

Methodist Men's Club Plan First Pancake Supper

A pancake supper complete with sausage and all the "trimmings" for adults and children will be held at the First Methodist Church on Tuesday, January 17th from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

This is the first of such undertakings by the Methodist Men's Club who will man all posts to furnish the diners with plenty of hot thin pancakes and an enjoyable evening.

All are invited. Tickets may be obtained at the church the evening of the event from club members. Adults 50 cents and children 30 cents. Proceeds will go toward church improvements.

Rev. England Tells Sunday Sermon Topic

Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor of the Torrance Christian Church, will sermonize on the subject, "The Relationship Between Physical and Mental Health and Religious Faith" during the 10:30 a.m. service at the local church this Sunday.

In his sermon Rev. England will illustrate how peace of mind and pleasantness in and among others are essential expressions of true and honest religion. He will show how peace and power of character are controlling factors in the human mind and have an important place in one's Christian Faith.

Two Topics Set For Services at Lomita Church

"This Christ! He Came Too Soon" will be the sermon theme of the Sunday morning sermon at the Lomita Presbyterian Church, 245th street and Woodward avenue.

At 7:15 p.m. Dr. B. Johnson Reemtsma, minister, will speak on the subject "Penknife Christians."

Large attendance was noted at the church's annual congregational meeting held Wednesday evening. Dr. Reemtsma said yesterday. The following officers were unanimously elected:

Trustees—Mrs. Carey W. Newton, C. Marsh, J. R. Stanton, J. W. Sellen, Willard Schlenker, Vern Zuker, L. Kas. Deacons—Mmes. Claude Pierce, G. Duffield, Otto Borowski, R. M. Jones, C. R. Thistle George Teunis, Tom Willacy, S. B. Harker, C. Kellman, J. C. Smith, James Hewitt, Ernest Mosher. Elders—G. Duffield, John Weber, Lee Rivard, Paul Carrio, M. Wilson, and Harry Fielding.

Ex-ministers

Pioneer Day, honoring retired ministers of the Central Evangelical United Brethren Church, will be observed Sunday at the church, Marcelina and Arlington avenues. This observance is held annually throughout the denomination in recognition of the service rendered by the pioneer minister.

Pot Luck Dinner At Lutheran Meeting Planned

Commencing with a pot luck dinner in the Parish hall, the members of the First Lutheran Church of Torrance will gather tonight at 6:30 at the Annual Congregation meeting.

Those attending are asked to bring a covered dish, a dessert or salad, and table service.

According to Mrs. Luella J. Meier, publicity chairman, regular services will be observed this Sunday beginning with Sun-

SCIENCE LECTURE

A lecture on the subject "Christian Science: The Revelation of the Healing Christ" will be broadcast over Station KPWB (980 kc), Friday, January 13, at 8 o'clock from the Thirteenth Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles. The lecturer, Dr. Walton Hubbard, C. S. B., of Los Angeles, is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.
